

Building lasting relationships with a strong foundation in Christ

SINCE MATTHEW

In October 2016, Haiti was hit by Hurricane Matthew. Damou Christian Mission was the only organization that did not flee the area. Instead they stayed to help their fellow Haitian brothers and sisters. With the support of donors, the Eugenes and other volunteers, the mission was able to provide food and other necessities to over 650 families.

In many ways, Haiti is still recovering from this disaster. Beyond the loss of life, homes, jobs and food, the costs of basic necessities has nearly doubled. Pray for Haiti as the needs remain so great.

30 YEARS: MOTHER OF CYVADIER

If it weren't for Tina Isenhower, and the vision the Lord gave her, Damou Christian Mission would not be making a powerful impact in Haiti today. Tina arrived in Haiti in 1987. She chose to settle in Cyvadier after sensing the potential of what God could do there. Due to the prayers and financial contributions of many like you, she was able to establish Damou Christian Mission. It became, and remains, a pillar in the community.

The mission was built from the ground up, often with Tina's own two hands. With the help of the Haitian people, a church, school, elderly home, and mission home were also created. To this day, Tina is considered the mother of Cyvadier.

Tina is not only a role model, she is a woman that will never be forgotten. She has left her mark in Haiti as God worked miracles through her hands. Though she is now retired, God has given her a new job. She has adopted three Haitian girls and so her work continues. Please pray that God guides her and gives her good health.

Even though Tina is no longer in Haiti, it doesn't mean the job is done. Loubens and Jessica Eugene have taken on the vision for Damou Christian Mission and grown it even further. It's a big job and they need your help financially, physically, and spiritually to continue what God has started in Cyvadier. ♥

TINA ISENHOWER

Please pray for the Eugene Family:
Loubens, Jessica, Phillippe and LJ

LOUBENS: MY FATHER

Claudy Eugene was born in Cyvadier. He was well-respected man who often helped Tina with construction at the school and other projects. He had 10 kids that he put through Damou Christian Mission School (one is now the director of the mission). He was my father.

Even though Claudy didn't serve God, he made sure all my brothers and sisters did. He was a voodoo priest, but loved his family. He had a voice that everyone listened to. He was the first to stand up to protect Tina and the Mission because he knew what Damou Christian Mission represented to the community. At the time, I did not know why he was so passionate about fighting for her and the Mission. I now realize he knew education was the key to survival in our society. It was a privilege to have his kids attend a good school. People couldn't afford to send their kids to school, but with the help of Damou Christian School, and your contributions, people like my father had a chance to give his kids a future. Today I am able to be a part of what you helped sow and what my dad and others fought for.

I know it is better to not judge each day by the harvest you reap but by the seed that you plant. I am so proud to say that the day my father died is the day he accepted Jesus Christ into his life. He has made an everlasting impact on me and many people in our community, God used him in so many ways. Damou Christian Mission changed his life and the life of his children. ♥

MILK FOR MOMS

Damou continues to reach out to moms and infants through nutrition, medical support, and education. On Tuesdays moms bring their infants and enroll in the infant nutrition program. Dr. Wilbert Jean Louis, a graduate from our school, provides medical care. Monthly seminars are offered on cleanliness, Biblical living, and proper nutrition for both mother and child. This is made possible thanks to the organization IDES. ♥
